IMPRISONMENT

of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of 60 months as to each of Counts 2 - 6 concurrently and 120 months as to Count 7 to be served consecutive to Counts 2 - 6.☒ The court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:

1. The defendant participate in any appropriate mental health evaluation and treatment program.

2. To the maximum extent permitted by law and the United States Constitution, the Court recommends, in the strongest possible terms, that the defendant should not be permitted to send any correspondence whatsoever to any person, including an attorney or court official or judge, unless it is reviewed and approved by an appropriate official of the Bureau of Prisons. This recommendation is not made lightly, but is essential in light of the defendant's criminal history. This criminal history includes repeated instances of the defendant, while incarcerated, sending letters to state and federal judges, prosecutors, former employers and others threatening to sexually mutilate, torture and murder them and members of their families, as well as the President of the United States, the Governor of California and the wardens of federal prisons. In light of this history, procedures should be put in place to verify that any purported correspondence, especially in the case of correspondence addressed to judges, prosecutors, prison or court officials is, in fact, an appropriate communication. If this recommendation is not followed, the predictable result will be the commission of more crimes by the defendant through the sending of communications in violation of 18 U.S.C. Section 876. These are not trivial crimes, and their commission by this defendant has repeatedly disrupted the functioning of the offices of, among others, state and federal judges and prosecutors.

3. In light of the defendant's criminal history as described above, and his extensive history of successfully sending threatening communications in spite of whatever prison restrictions there may have been upon the mailing of such communications, he should be confined in the most restrictive environment possible. Accordingly, it is recommended that he be confined at USP Florence-High, or a similarly restrictive institution.

4. Because of the vital importance of these recommendations, the Bureau of Prisons is requested to advise the Court of the actions taken by it on these recommendations.

☒ The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.☐ The defendant shall surrender to the United States Marshal for this district:☐ at _____ a.m./p.m. on _____.☐ as notified by the United States Marshal.

☐ The defendant shall surrender, at his/her own expense, to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons at the date and time specified in a written notice to be sent to the defendant by the United States Marshal. If the defendant does not receive such a written notice, defendant shall surrender to the United States Marshal:

A defendant who fails to report either to the designated institution or to the United States Marshal as directed shall be subject to the penalties of Title 18 U.S.C. §3146. If convicted of an offense while on release, the defendant shall be subject to the penalties set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3147. For violation of a condition of release, the defendant shall be subject to the sanctions set forth in Title 18 U.S.C. §3148. Any bond or property posted may be forfeited and judgment entered against the defendant and the surety in the full amount of the bond.
